The 7-Day New Year Home Reset

One room a day for the first week of January, about an hour each. Clear what the holidays left, deep clean what waited all year, and set a routine that keeps it.

The one rule: one room a day, a timer set, and stop when it rings. Sort every room into three bags: trash, donate, and belongs somewhere else. The full guide with the why behind every task is on the site.

1 DAY 1 — Entryway — 45 min

- [ ] Drop zone sorted: trash, donate, elsewhere
- [ ] Handle, deadbolt, switch and doorbell wiped
- [ ] Baseboard scuffs lifted, mat shaken or washed
- [ ] A home for keys, bags and shoes

2 DAY 2 — Kitchen, fridge first — 90 min

- [ ] Fridge emptied, shelves washed, zones set
- [ ] Pantry purged of expired and stale
- [ ] Oven paste overnight, microwave steamed
- [ ] Counters, cabinet fronts, sink, new sponge

3 DAY 3 — Bathroom — 60 min

4 DAY 4 — Bedroom — 60 min

- [ ] Closet edited: donate, trash, fix this month
- [ ] Bedding and pillows washed hot
- [ ] Mattress: baking soda, 30 minutes, vacuum
- [ ] Surfaces dusted, under the bed vacuumed

5 DAY 5 — Living room — 60 min

- [ ] Dishes, cards and wrapping paper out
- [ ] Remotes and switches wiped with alcohol
- [ ] Cushions off, frame and cushions vacuumed
- [ ] Glitter lifted, floors vacuumed and mopped

6 DAY 6 — Laundry room — 45 min

- [ ] Gasket fold and detergent drawer cleaned
- [ ] Empty hot cycle, vinegar or a tablet
- [ ] Lint screen tested under the tap
- [ ] Vent duct brushed from both ends

7 DAY 7 — Holidays away — 60 min
